Girl Delivery Tips and Best Practices – Fall Product Program

Family, friends, and neighbors want to support Girl Scouts and their goals. Girl Scouts, put your best foot forward - Know your products, practice your sales pitch, and share your goals! When people learn you are working on a highest award or that your troop is saving up for a trip or planning to do a community service or take action project, they'll want to contribute to your success!

In-Person Order Taking

- Through the M2 Girl Scout storefront, girls can print their own business cards or a door hanger, and both have the link/QR code to the girl's storefront!
- Business cards and door hangers are helpful tools when going door-to-door asking neighbors to support their goals. Girl Scouts can print them from your M2 dashboard! Both include a QR code to her online storefront.
- Girls should NOT leave any items in people's mailboxes. Leave a business card or door hanger at the door instead. Be respectful of no soliciting signs.

Delivery

- Communicate with customer and coordinate time and location of nut/candy delivery.
- If you are unable to deliver the products to your customers at the arranged time, be sure to communicate the change and schedule a new time/date.
- Call or send a text message when the nut/candy products are "out for delivery" and a message once delivered.
- Remind customers to bring the candy inside, and to not leave it at their doorstep or in the car for too long.
- Customer appreciation is key to being a successful entrepreneur! Girls can leave a personalized note with the nut/candy delivery
- Adults should accompany Daisies, Brownies, and Juniors on all nut/candy deliveries.
- It's recommended that Cadettes, Seniors, and Ambassadors make deliveries with a friend or an adult.

Keep in mind that many customers order nuts and candy to give as holiday gifts. That's one reason why timely deliveries are important! Also candy, especially chocolate, is sensitive to heat and cold. Store in cool, dry place, and notify customers when delivery is made, reminding them to bring their order inside!
