

Calling All Troops!

Help test new Financial Literacy badges this fall!

Girl Scouts of the USA has teamed up with Girl Scouts of Colorado to test NEW Financial Literacy Badges.

We need Girl Scouts from all levels who will volunteer their time to test the NEW Financial Literacy Badges.

No financial experience necessary – all Girl Scout volunteers can deliver this program!

Why participate? Your girls will...

- Be the first to try new financial literacy badge activities.
- Help GSUSA develop national financial literacy programs by providing feedback.
- Earn a $25 gift card for their troop to support troop-related program expenses.

What's Involved:

Each troop will be required to:

1. Complete one new Financial Literacy Badge between November 1, 2021 and January 7, 2022
2. Complete the pilot research activities, which includes:
 - Administering a girl post-survey
 - Completing a leader post-survey
 - Provide experience documentation from pilot:
 - Five (5) photos of girls participating in badge activities
 - Five (5) quotes from girls and troop leaders

Interested in Participating?

Fill out a brief form at <http://www.tinyurl.com/FinLit21> no later than October 22, 2021