Frequently Asked Questions

What is Mackenzie Scott's relationship with Girl Scouts?
Mackenzie Scott is a champion for girls and women who through her philanthropic efforts has looked to directly make a long-term impact on girls' futures.

How were the 29 recipient councils selected?
Mackenzie Scott selected the 29 recipient councils based on donor criteria that has not been made public. By selecting Girl Scouts as a recipient, not only will individual council regions throughout the nation be impacted, but the donation will directly impact the nearly 2 million girls and adults who participate in Girl Scouting nationwide.

What will the donation/funds be used for?
At Girl Scouts of Colorado, the funds will be used to serve more girls across the state in new and innovative ways. We expect to continue down a path of thinking creatively about how to meet girls where they are and lift up issues they care about such as mental health, equity, and the environment.

Will Girl Scouts of Colorado members and volunteers have a say in how the funds will be spent?
We value the input and feedback of our members, volunteers, and other key stakeholders and always welcome ideas from and suggestions about how to best serve girls in Colorado.
