Discover your wild side

Unplugged. Untamed. Unforgettable. Discover your wild side while on horseback, the high ropes course, watercraft, or a meandering trail.
Girl Scout camp has it all. What are you waiting for?

Are you ready to go to camp?

Read the question and check the box next to your choice.
There are no right or wrong answers— just be honest with yourself!

	No way	Maybe	Yes
1. Can you stay overnight at a friend's house without missing your family or feeling lonely or sad?	☐	☐	☐
2. Can you shampoo your own hair and keep it brushed and neat?	☐	☐	☐
3. Are you willing to try new foods that you haven't eaten before?	☐	☐	☐
4. Do you enjoy outdoor activities such as swimming, hiking, camping, and sleeping in a tent?	☐	☐	☐
5. Can you survive without a radio, TV, air conditioning, and a phone?	☐	☐	☐
6. Can you pack your own suitcase with things you need?	☐	☐	☐
7. Can you make your bed and keep track of your own belongings?	☐	☐	☐
8. Do you like to meet new people and do things with other girls–not just your best friend?	☐	☐	☐
9. Are you brave during thunderstorms, when you see a spider, or when you hear strange noises at night?	☐	☐	☐
10. Do you want to go to camp?	☐	☐	☐

Now figure out your score...

Give yourself 1 point for each "No way," 2 for each "Maybe," and 3 for each "Yes."

- Less than 18 points: Try day or troop camps first.
- 18 - 25 points: You're ready for an adventure at Girl Scout Camp!
- More than 25 points: You must be an experienced camper!

Types of camp

Day camps

These camps are meant to encourage you to build confidence in the great outdoors while still returning to your own bed at night.

Overnight camps

Truly a life-changing experience, overnight camp is a world to itself. Here, you'll discover the power within, build resiliency, self-esteem, and confidence.

Leadership camps

When just can't get enough of camp, it's time for our leadership program! Boost your leadership skills while you help bring the magic of camp to other campers.

Troop camps

These programs includes meals, lodging, and fun camp programs provided by camp staff or volunteers while troop leaders are responsible for supervision of their troop.

Family camps

Your whole family is welcome to get outside, face fun challenges, and bond together at these camps for all-ages!

Important info

Common questions

- What do the listed grades for each session mean?
  - To be eligible for a session your camper should be entering one of the listed grades in fall 2025.
- How is cost listed?
  - Each price is per camper, including prices listed for troop and family camps.
- How do I register for a camp?
  - For overnight and statewide day camps, please register using CampInTouch. You will need to make an account to register. Full instructions can be found on our camp website.
  - For Tomahawk Ranch and Sky High Ranch day camps, and troop and family camps, you will register on the myGS events calendar found on the main GSCO website.
  - For volunteer run camps, please see the full session listing on our camp website for instructions.
- When are camp forms and payment due?
  - Full payment for your each camp session is due four weeks prior to the start of camp. The deadline is the same for all required forms. You can see the deadline date specified beside each required form listed in your CampInTouch account.
- What is the cancellation policy?
  - Cancellations for most reasons will be refunded, minus the registration processing fee, if the cancellation is made with a written request four weeks before the session begins. After that, the balance is refunded only if the camper moves out of the state, has been certified to be ill by a physician, or there is a family emergency. Full details are available on our Refund and cancellation policy page on our camp website.

Backpacking

A backpacking adventure through the rugged and scenic Rocky Mountains. At camp, you'll master skills in hiking, fire building, tent set-up, trekking, outdoor cooking, whittling and orienteering. It all leads up to a 5-night, 6-day off-site epic backpacking adventure. Campers should be comfortable living and sleeping in a rustic "survival" setting and able to carry approximately 20-25 percent of their body weight. While off-site backpacking, campers will spend multiple nights at a primitive campsite, carrying gear, setting up tents, and cooking meals. There will be plenty of time for other fun, on-site and off-site camp activities, including a trip to a local adventure park complete with ziplines and a high ropes course.

TR13: Grades 9 - 12, $1,520

Session 3

July 6 - 11

S’more Stories

The stars are out and you wrap up by the campfire with warm pajamas and a cozy blanket. Hearing the crackling of the campfire and savoring the sweet carmelized sticky marshmallow you sway to the hum of the counselors song. Stories, songs, and delicious campfire treats await for this carefree camp. Camp activities may include a fun campout, hiking the beautiful area, dancing like no one is watching, stargazing, crafting, tasting goodies at the greenhouse and gardens, and even loving on a barn cat! Come enjoy all the magic camp has to offer! All camp activities include a rodeo/carnival and a spooktacular 'Summerween' (bring your favorite costume)!

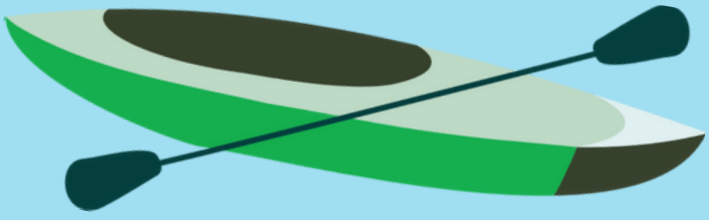
SH27: Grades 4 and 5, $825

Session 4, July 6 - 11



Boaters

Spend an unforgettable week at Upper Pond, where the water is your playground! Dive into kayaking, stand-up paddleboarding, and canoeing as you level up your skills and soak up the sunshine. Paddle the day away, exploring every corner of the pond, and make friends who love the water just as much as you do! This is a Level 2/ Intermediate water camp.

SH13: Grades 6 - 8, $825

Session 2, June 15 - 20

Hammocks and Sunshine

What better way to spend a week of your summer break than by soaking in the sun, lounging in a hammock, paddling at our pond, conquer Crash Landing (rock climbing on a natural rock face) and making your own adventure at Sky High Ranch? Venture with your new friends from the heights of our high ropes course and zipline, and make this camp your own!

SH05: Grades 6 - 12, $915

Session 1, June 8 - 13

Hammock Hideaway

Sway in the gentle breeze as you gaze upon the stars from your hammock. Spend at least two nights in hammocks amongst the trees and play the day away at the zipline, pond, and other amazing programs. This primitive survival program will include survival basics such as knot tying (to tie up your hammock!), shelter building, and navigation.

SH05: Grades 6 - 12, $925

Session 3, June 22 - 27

Sky High Ranch Samplers

Try Sky High

Explore camp by making new friends, singing around the campfire, visiting the barnyard, creating crafts, dabbling in sports, taking a nature walk, making s'mores and more! How much fun can we fit into three days?
