

National Geographic Slingshot Challenge

Who: Girl Scouts ages 13-18 who want to change the world by solving an environmental problem.

What: One video, unlimited opportunity. Help your Girl Scouts craft an idea and submit a one-minute video for the chance to receive $10,000 in funding.

This is an excellent opportunity for Highest Awards Girl Scouts who have completed an environmental focused project or those looking to earn a Silver or Gold Award. All Colorado Girl Scouts who enter a video will also be included in a drawing for one of five $100 gift cards.

When: Entries due to National Geographic by Feb. 1, 2024
Enter the GSCO drawing by Feb. 2, 2024

Why: You're a Girl Scout! You believe that no problem is unsolvable and you care about our planet. You've practiced how to make the world a better place through countless Take Action and community service projects. Rise to the challenge and submit a 1-minute video.

How: Attend or watch the 30-minute training. Create your one-minute video (in-person drop-in help sessions available). Submit to National Geographic by Feb. 1 for a chance at $10,000 to fund your idea, and then submit the GSCO form to be entered into the drawing for a $100 gift card.
