Join the Celebration!

Celebrate Native American Heritage Month by recognizing the histories, cultures, and contributions of the Native American communities that were the first inhabitants in the United States. We invite you to learn more about the cultures of the Indian Nations in your state and across the country—we've got plenty of activities to choose from, so you can have tons of fun learning while earning a fun patch!

Represent GSCO at the Commission on the Status of Women

Each year, Girl Scouts of the USA joins more than 5,000 women and girls from around the world at the United Nations headquarters in New York to participate in the Commission on the Status of Women (CSW). GSCO is seeking applications from high school Girl Scouts interested in serving as CSW delegates during the first week of the session, March 6–11, 2027. Delegates will participate in global advocacy, learn about global issues and how global organizations function, and raise their voices on global issues impacting girls and young women.

The deadline to apply is Nov. 20.
