International Day of the Girl 2026

Every year on Oct. 11, the global community comes together to celebrate International Day of the Girl. It's the day when you can recognize the power of girls everywhere—and highlight, discuss, and take action to advance the rights of, and opportunities for, girls across the globe.

Girl Scouts has an International Day of the Girl activity guide you can complete on your own, or you can attend a local community event—like the International Day of the Girl Celebration at Girl Scout DreamLab just for older Girl Scouts.

Fall Product Program Starts Sept. 10

The Fall Product Program is a great way for troops to earn startup funds for Girl Scout activities throughout the year or to get one step closer to reaching their next goal. All troops receive 14% of magazine, BarkBox, and Tervis tumbler orders as troop proceeds, plus $1.15/per item for nuts and chocolates sold. Girl Scouts can participate as individual members or with their troop. In addition to earning funds, girls can earn rewards, including a personalized patch, enter Fall Product Program contests, and become part of the S'mores Club!

Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month

Hispanic Heritage Month is Sept. 15-Oct. 15. You can celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month with your Girl Scout by recognizing all the histories, cultures, and contributions that Hispanic and Latino people have made. Take this opportunity to learn more about the 21 Spanish-speaking countries and territories' cultures honored during these four weeks. And with plenty of activities to choose from, the discovery and fun are endless.
