Celebrate Earth Day with the Girl Scout Tree Promise

April 22 is Earth Day—a day all about taking action to protect our planet. You can celebrate Earth Day by completing the Girl Scout Tree Promise. Whether it's in a backyard, at camp, or in your community, you can join Girl Scouts from all over to plant, protect, and honor trees with this patch program. There's even a guide for adult volunteers to help you get started. By working together, we can create a better future for ourselves and the planet.

GSCO delegates want to hear from you!

The GSCO delegates are gathering feedback from Girl Scouts of Colorado members ahead of the July National Council Session (NCS). The delegation is committed to having a strong and informed understanding of how GSCO members feel about these proposals, ensuring that their votes reflect the perspectives of our local Girl Scout community.

April is Volunteer Appreciation Month

Girl Scout volunteers deserve to be celebrated for their creativity, care, and dedication! We've created a set of fun and creative ways for you and your Girl Scout to show your gratitude. FREE downloadable resources include coloring sheets, thank you cards, and gift guides.

Girl Scout Volunteer Gift Guide

April is Volunteer Appreciation Month, and it's the perfect time to show our amazing volunteers just how much they mean to us! Whether it's a small token of thanks or something special, a thoughtful gift can go a long way in letting your volunteers know they are appreciated.

Here are some great gift ideas to celebrate your volunteers this month:

- Troop Leader T-shirt – Comfortable and fun to wear while leading your troop
- Legacy Pattern Oversized Scarf – A stylish accessory they'll love
- GSCO Pink Admiral Tote Bag – Perfect for carrying all their Girl Scout essentials
- GSCO 40oz Mug – Keep them fueled with their favorite beverage

You can shop for these items in-store or online and find the perfect way to say "thank you" to the volunteers who make everything possible. Let's make this Volunteer Appreciation Month one to remember!
