Hike Mt. Blue Sky with the OAC Aug. 22-24

Do you ever feel tired after a long hike? Self-care might be for you! The OAC will be hiking 12 miles at Mt. Blue Sky and then coming down from the mountain for a spa night and sleepover at Twisted Pine. Come learn how to hike sustainably and how to take care of yourself after a day on the mountain.

Please note: We will not be summiting Mt. Blue Sky, but instead hike on the Chicago Lakes trail to see beautiful high alpine lakes. The maximum length of this trail is 12 miles with 2,500 feet of elevation gain, but campers will set their own hiking goals and hike in a smaller group that matches their desired pace.

Cost: $250

Registration opens June 8.

Celebrate Juneteenth

Juneteenth combines “June” and “nineteenth.” It's also known as Freedom Day, Jubilee Day, and Emancipation Day. Even though President Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation officially ending slavery in 1863, in practice slavery remained in some parts of the country. On June 19, 1865, word that the Civil War was over and slavery was abolished finally made it to enslaved people in Galveston, Texas—and celebrations throughout the newly free Black community followed, which in time became an annual tradition across the United States Let's recognize Juneteenth with joy and a commitment to the ongoing fight for freedom!
