Get outdoors this summer!

Girl Scouts are forces of nature -- and they were meant for outdoor adventures. Whether they're experiencing their first overnight camp, discovering soaking in new adventures at day camp, or spending time with the whole family at camp, every outdoor adventure grows a Girl Scout's "I've got this" attitude. And once they unlock that confidence, they'll aim as high as the stars they see outside their cabin window.

Looking for some daytime camp fun? Day camps are for you!

Adventures in Nature Day Camp
From birding to paddling, each location is unique and will have different activities. These camps are meant to encourage campers to learn about the wilderness around them, create fun experiences in our natural parks, and build confidence with each other in the great outdoors! Sessions are held at Barr Lake State Park, Bear Creek State Park, and Cherry Creek State Park.

Volunteer-led day camps
Be sure to check out volunteer-led camps across the state, programs hosted by Girl Scouts for Girl Scouts! Volunteer camps offer a lot of variety, from one-day-only programs to three-night troop camps, from paddling skills to outdoor cooking and science experiments, there's a perfect fit for everyone. Day camps take place in public facilities across the state, such as schools, state parks, community centers, or local outdoor spaces.

Ready for an overnight adventure?

Girl Scout Daisies who will bridge to Brownies this summer/fall are eligible to attend overnight camp this summer! Truly a life-changing experience, overnight camp is a world to itself – away from screens and competition, you'll connect with nature and one another in a girl-led, supportive environment. Here, you'll discover the power within, build resiliency, self-esteem, and confidence. All while having the time of your life. Girl Scouts sign up on their own or with a buddy.

GSCO offers overnight camps at Sky High Ranch and Tomahawk Ranch.

Sky High Ranch is a gorgeous mountainous camp near Woodland Park, about an hour from Colorado Springs, and two hours from Denver. At overnight camp at Sky High Ranch, campers might dip into a beautiful mountain pond one day, fly down the mountain on a zipline another day, and sleep beneath a million stars by night. They'll experience life away from it all, make new friends, learn some crazy camp songs, meet cool counselors from all over the world, and get to know some pretty cool barn animals too.
Visit Sky High Ranch on Sunday, May 18, 10 a.m. - 1 p.m. No registration is required for this free event.

Tomahawk Ranch is a beautiful sunny property near Bailey, about an hour from Denver and two hours from Fort Collins and Colorado Springs. At Tomahawk Ranch campers create amazing connections, make new friends, meet counselors from all over the world and get to know some pretty cool pigs, llamas, chickens, goats, and even the barn kitty too. Explore the Rocky Mountains on horseback, gaze at the stars, enjoy a s'more, and have an amazing outdoor adventure!
Visit Tomahawk Ranch on Saturday, May 31, 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. for a fun open house event! No registration is required for this free event.

Enjoy camp as a family!

Are you hoping to get the whole family outdoors this summer? Family camps are a fun and rewarding way to connect with loved ones, enjoy the outdoors, and create lasting memories. Tomahawk Ranch and Sky High Ranch provide affordable summer opportunities to get outdoors with your family. Consider our work weekends, Me & My Guy, or Choose My Own Adventure weekend opportunities! Dates and descriptions for these family camps are located on the sessions listing page and you can register on the gsEvents calendar.

Additionally, families are welcome to make a reservation to enjoy a GSCO property for their own adventure at camp!
