Save the date for 2026 Highest Award Celebrations!

Did your Girl Scout earn a Silver or Gold Award since April 1, 2025? If so, they will be invited to this year's Highest Awards Celebration! Save the date for the celebration in your region. Official registration links will be emailed to eligible Girl Scout families in March. Girl Scouts currently working on their Highest Awards have until March 31 to submit their final reports to be included in this year's celebrations. Girl Scouts who submit their final report after March 31 will be invited to next year's events.

If you have any questions contact our team at highestawards@gscolorado.org.

Reserve your spot at camp!

GSCO has a camp experience for every Girl Scout—from stargazing and discovering wildlife to ziplining and archery. Camp is an amazing experience that will stay with your camper long after the last embers of the campfire have faded away. We can't wait to help start your camper's summer adventure!

Registration is open so don't delay!

Rallyhood easily connects you with other volunteers, caregivers, and council staff

Rallyhood is our primary digital hub for the GSCO community. Whether you're seeking program information, planning events, or looking to connect with other caregivers and volunteers in Colorado, Rallyhood keeps everything organized and accessible.

This free platform unites our community in one user-friendly space. From event calendars and program materials to council announcements and discussion threads, everything you need is just a click away.

Rallyhood helps make Girl Scouting simpler and more connected. It's our way of helping everyone—families, volunteers, and supporters—feel informed and empowered.

Ready to get started? Download this flyer to get more information on how to sign up for Rallyhood and access your groups!

Her cookie business = a family affair

It's never been easier to support your Girl Scout as she develops business skills, makes amazing memories, and earns a different pin every cookie season. The simple, age-specific guidelines meet her where she is developmentally, making success a snap.
Find out how your Girl Scout can earn this pin with your help!

Cookie season has officially started and the GSCO Retail Shop is stocked with fun finds for you and your troop! From staying organized to catching customer attention, we've got everything you need for cookie season, including:

- A cookie clipboard to keep papers organized in style
