Is it to start a Highest Award project, start a new routine, or maybe get straight A's? Create a plan to work hard to make it happen. Learn a new skill. Practice a skill that will help you explore something you've always wanted to try. Maybe even earn a badge while you're at it! Create a motivational mantra. Create a saying to help you get back up and try again when you fall down.	Innovator Solve a problem in a creative way. Girl Scouts innovate to find unique solutions. Find an imaginative solution to an everyday or community problem. Invent something new. Think outside the box and find a new way to do something. Create a work of art. Choose your favorite type of art and make a masterpiece. Visit a local gallery to see how other artists are innovators in their work.	Risk-Taker Do something new. Girl Scouts explore the world around them. Push your boundaries and do something you've never done before. Make a promise to stop saying "can't". Think about the times you've said "I can't do (something)". Write a note to remind yourself to take safe risks and try. Break the mold. Be the first person you know to try something. Share the experience with your friends and family.	Leader Be a role model. Lead younger girls in celebrating Girl Scout week. Invite the community. Make a Girl Scout Proclamation. Learn more about Juliette "Daisy" Gordon Low. Discuss how Girl Scouts started and who "Daisy" was in her community.	Girl Scout Birthday! Show your Girl Scout pride! Show your schoolmates your love and support of Girl Scout sisterhood by wearing your uniform. Girl Scout Jumu'ah Wear your Girl Scout uniform to worship.
